

Agenda:

- Submission deadline: June, 30th 2021
- The review process is double-blinded. Papers are reviewed by Members of the DDF Academic Board until August, 20th 2021
- Presentations: September, 23th 2021

The submission policies are:

1. Accepted languages are German and English.
2. Authors should be listed in alphabetical order (and not linked to an academic hierarchy).
3. NO changes in the paper title, abstract, authorship, and actual paper can occur AFTER the submission deadline.
4. The paper and the submission form must be submitted via submission form on <https://davosdigitalforum.ch/academic-track-21/> Deadline is June, 30th 2021

The formatting guidelines include:

1. The entire submission (title page in Title Case, abstract, text, figures, graphs, tables, and references) must be contained in one document. Number all of the pages of the paper.
2. The maximum length of the submission is 30 pages (including title page and all figures, graphs, tables, appendices, and references.).
3. Use Times New Roman 12-point font, double spaced, and 2.5 cm margin all around.
4. To facilitate the blind review process, remove ALL author-identifying information from your submission document. Note: You will still include ALL authors associated with your submission in the submission form, but not in your paper. The author information will appear in the Conference Proceedings.
5. Check that the paper is converted and print correctly (i.e. all imported figures and tables are there).
6. Upload a PDF version of your paper.
7. Regarding order, structure and format of your paper, follow the APA Guidelines (<https://apastyle.apa.org/style-grammar-guidelines/paper-format>).

A Sample Paper Submission for the Davos Digital Forum 2021

ABSTRACT

This is a sample paper submission for the Davos Digital Forum 2021. It is meant to be used to help submitters as they prepare their paper for submission. The paper submission should follow all formatting guidelines as specified in the Call for Submissions. The guidelines include that the entire paper including all tables, appendices and references cannot be more than 30 pages. All papers must be submitted using the submission form.
